communicate the "naked truth." Naked, we are all the same re-gardless of rank. In theory at least, this kind of "exposure" leads to better, more honest communication. This got me thinking: What if we thought of designing and deliver-ing business presentations in a way that was more "naked" as well? A way that was simpler,

Business Exposed: The Naked Truth about What Really Goes

Business is ugly and weâ€™re tired of people pretending itâ€™s not. The public world of business is always about master strategies, business models, and economic trends. The real world is a lot messier. The real world of business is about people â€” and people are messy. They are also brilliant, unfocused, motivated, lazy, innovative, painful, and incredibly important to your success.
