An audiophile is a person who is enthusiastic about high-fidelity sound reproduction. An audiophile seeks to reproduce the sound of a live musical performance, typically in a room with good acoustics. It is widely agreed that reaching this goal is very difficult and that even the best-regarded recording and playback systems rarely, if ever, achieve it.

50. Q: If people want to assess their own abilities as leaders, how do you suggest they get started? A: In our research we've learned that the behavior leaders struggle with the most is "I ask for feedback on how my actions affect the performance of others." It's something everyone finds difficult, so just asking the question about getting started is a big step forward.

People often note a sophomore slump or sequelitis where the second work in a series or the other works by an author are noticeably worse than the first and most popular.. Some of this can be inherent to the successor, since they cannot, for example, benefit from the magic of world-building a second time.
