Mentorship is a relationship in which a more experienced or more knowledgeable person helps to guide a less experienced or less knowledgeable person. The mentor may be older or younger than the person being mentored, but he or she must have a certain area of expertise. It is a learning and development partnership between someone with vast experience and someone who wants to learn.

I don't know if you have any experiences with the coaching scene or not, so no worries if you don't. Coaching is even something I would possibly consider as a career; I can see wanting to help people in a similar situation figure out what career may fit best with their skills and personality, but certainly I would want to work with a coach before I made any type of decision like that.
