â€œWe were wrong.â€• We now express those same words regarding our stance on Watchman Nee, Witness Lee, and the local churches. The cost has been significant. Integrity has been questioned, motives challenged, and slander has ensued. As a result, support has been compromised. If I heard it once I

We Were Wrong

Mummy and I tilted our square chins high as Dad drove down the hill. Then we went indoors and trashed the gifts heâ€™d given us: jewelry, clothes, books, anything. In the days that followed, we got rid of the couch and armchairs my parents had bought together. Tossed the wedding china, the silver, the photographs. We purchased new furniture.
