says that our most definitive persuasion comes from actually seeing the glory of God in his Word.

Theologians have traditionally called this the â€œinternal testimony of the Holy Spirit,â€™ but that theological label does little justice to the experience, the awareness of the glory of God as we meet Jesus in Scripture. That really happens.

word glory is not mentioned, this revelation of God to Moses is the revelation of the glory of God. God is showing His glory to Moses. And we have said that there are five aspects of Godâ€™s glory. If we were to grow in these five aspects, we will grow to understand the glory of God. The first aspect, which we have seen, is mercy. God proclaims His mercy.

The Attributes of God Introduction Growing up, many children learn a simple mealtime prayer: â€œGod is great, God is good, let us thank him for our food.â€• This simple prayer highlights two attributes or perfections of God: his greatness and his goodness. The impulse to teach children about the attributes of God is exactly right.
