(PDF) Li Zhang, In Search of Paradise. Middle-Class Living

A new revolution in homeownership and living has been sweeping the booming cities of China. This time the main actors on the social stage are not peasants, migrants, or working-class proletariats but middle-class professionals and entrepreneurs in search of a private paradise in a society now dominated by consumerism.

In Search of Paradise adds terrific specificity to the understanding of why scholars of China often avoid non-experts who ask whether China is socialist or capitalist .

In Search of Paradise: Middle-Class Living in a Chinese

In Search of Paradise is a deeply informed account of how the rise of private homeownership is reconfiguring urban space, class subjects, gender selfhood, and ways of life in the reform era. New, seemingly individualistic lifestyles mark a dramatic move away from yearning for a social utopia under Maoist socialism.
